

IN THE PINES

LEADBELLY

Intro: Harp or Whooee-whoohoo-whoohoo

First note = C#

[Chorus]

A D C
In the pines, in the pines, where the sun never shines
A E7 A
and I shiver where the cold winds blow

A D C
Now girl, little girl, don't you lie to me
A E7 A
tell me where did you sleep last night
[Chorus]

A D C
Little girl, little girl, where you been so long?
A E7 A
Not even your mama knows.
[Chorus]

A D C
My girl, my girl, where will you go
A E7 A
I'm going where the cold wind blows
[Chorus]

A D C A E7 A
The longest train I ever seen was on the Georgia line
A D C A E7 A
The engine passed at six o'clock, and the cab came past at nine
A D C A E7 A
My daddy, he was a railroad man, killed a mile and a half from town.
A D C A E7 A
His head, was found neath' the driving wheel, his body was never found
[Chorus]

A A7 D C
Whooee-whoohoo; whoohoo-whoohoo
A E7 A
Whooee-whoohoo-whoohoo-whoohoo!
